

6th Annual Southeast Adult Autism Symposium

Saturday, July 23, 2022

University of Tennessee - Chattanooga
University Center - Community Room

AGENDA

Anyone can attend any session!

8:00-8:15 AM Exhibitors check in to get badges

8:15-9:00 AM Attendees/Speakers check in to get badges and goody bags, visit exhibitors

Times (Eastern)	Room A	Room B	Room C
9:00-10:00AM	The Basics of Tennessee Vocational Rehabilitation Corey Raburn Tennessee Vocational Rehabilitation Field Supervisor	Self-Care and Development of Executive Functioning Skills: The Keys to Success for Autistic Adults Michele Louzon	When to Cleave, When to Leave Sean Boogard
10:00-10:15AM	BREAK (visit exhibitors)
10:15-11:15AM	Being An Adult on the Autism Spectrum Melvin Rodgers, D.Min, BCC, ACPE	ECF CHOICES Kristen Calloway, Conya Mull, & Judy Pate-Will, Aimee Rogers BCBS - UHC Community - Amerigroup	Managing Your Money Madison Scott Financial Relationship Consultant Regions Bank
11:30AM-1:00PM	Lunch - Tennessee Room Presentation of Scott Kramer Advocacy Award Attendees can visit exhibitors and connect with other attendees Silent Auction Ends at 12:50PM
1:00-2:00PM	Social Stories for Grown-ups Raissa Chandler Nathan Zimmerman, Program Director of GCA Jamie Mackintosh, BA	Social Security Disability Kell Todd, JD, LLM McMahan Law Firm	Autistic Burnouts and Self Understanding Claire Kraft HomeServe USA
2:00-2:20PM
2:20-3:20PM	The True History of Autism Nancy Rogers, AS 2017 Partners in Policymaking Graduate	Understanding Common Barriers in Communication and Strategies to Support Communication Alyce Benson, LCSW & Jamie Mackintosh, BA	CANCELED Observations and "Opinions" About Relationships From An Autistic Adult Troy Krombholz